Like Dreamers: The Story of the Israeli Paratroopers Who Reunited Jerusalem and Divided a Nation

Yossi Klein Halevi

In June 1967, Israel achieved the unimaginable – a decisive victory against Egypt, Jordan, and Syria in the Six-Day War. The most symbolic triumph for the young nation was the reunification of Israeli West Jerusalem and Jordanian East Jerusalem, achieved at great cost by a group of paratroopers from the 55th Paratroopers Reserve Brigade. In restoring Jewish sovereignty to the Holy City, these men fulfilled the dream of two millennia, changing the history of Israel and of the Middle East. And as veteran journalist Yossi Klein Halevi shows in Like Dreamers, they played pivotal roles in shaping Israel’s destiny long after their resounding military success.

A masterful storyteller, Halevi tracks down seven members of the 55th Brigade and traces their lives through the decades following the Six-Day War.

What the Dead Sea Scrolls Reveal About Judaism with Dr. Naomi Jacobs

Everything we thought we knew about the Bible, Midrash, ancient Jewish religious practices and Jewish literature changed radically with the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Come and learn about the major implications of more than 800 documents and be prepared for some big surprises!

Dr. Naomi Susan Schwartz Jacobs is a scholar and teacher of ancient Jewish writings and history, especially those writings that were lost from Jewish consciousness and have only now been read by Jews again. Jacobs most recently taught at Washington University in Saint Louis and as an adult Jewish educator in Saint Louis and Boulder; she also teaches Hebrew at Bonai Shalom’s Religious School. Dr. Jacobs’ insights into the Dead Sea Scrolls come in part from her studies with an original member of the Dead Sea Scroll deciphering team.

President’s Message

As most of you know, my term as President concluded June 30 and Jeff Davis has stepped in as our new President. It has been an honor to serve the congregation and incredibly rewarding on a personal level. As Jeff takes the lead, I wish for him just as rewarding an experience. I know that his experiences will be very different (I hope!) than mine have been. But, we will no doubt face many challenges as a community, and I have incredible confidence in Jeff’s ability to lead our Board and our community through all that we may face. I am grateful to be able to hand over the Presidency to such a capable individual. Jeff brings a tremendous kavanah that combines a sense of humor and deep caring with a serious dedication to making sure we keep our community vital and growing.

I want to use this last column to express my gratitude to all those who helped us through a challenging two years. First, I want to thank the Board members – you provided tremendous support for the synagogue in incredible times. You volunteered your time above what you could possibly have expected would be necessary. Individually, each Board member brought a unique flavor and perspective to the Board. So, as individuals (in no particular order) I want to thank:

Larry Cohn for knowing every soul in the community, his deep understanding of how to lead a shul and his wise counsel upon which I relied.

Marilyn Carol for her sense of persistence, attention and determination to “get it right.”

Suzanne Kaufman-Sweeney for her vision, leadership and autonomy in keeping our Religious School running – and running well – through multiple crises.

Arti Goldstein for her ability to organize and execute projects, her energy and her dedication to Bonai Shalom.

Eve Wood for her wisdom, sense of people, and clear thinking.

Jeff Davis for his attention to detail, his volunteer ‘work’ ethic, and the kavanah he brings to the Board.

Phil Sadow for his ability to organize and lead teams, his soft-spoken understanding of what makes operations work.

Itzik Ziv for his equanimity in the face of disaster and being out there in the rain trying to sandbag as the rain was falling.

Stephen Huh for helping pull together our IT systems and phones as well as his calm wisdom on all matters.

Gary Jacobs for his depth of knowledge about Bonai and more gentle wisdom.

Bruce Wildman for incredible energy, keeping focus on what is important, and modeling wonderful kavanah.

Yonatan Gold for always being willing to step up when needed.

Andrew Schwartz for his willingness to challenge the conventional ‘group-think’ that sometimes can arise on a Board and ensure we truly considered all possibilities fairly.

Rona Cantor for her historical knowledge of Bonai Shalom and her diligence in pursuing membership and outreach activities.

Aza Squarer for her energy, knowledge of non-profit administration and governance, and willingness to step in whenever needed.

Thoughts From Our Rabbi

Old New Schuł

I love my new basement and I never loved it more than when some twenty or so people gathered there one Friday in June for an experimental prayer experience. I love our traditions; our rich liturgy and the wealth of rituals for daily, weekly, monthly and yearly Jewish practice and connection. I also love the great spiritual and emotional wisdom of the Jewish life cycle. At times, however, I have this feeling that we need to shake it all up so that we can return to it with new eyes. We are the people of the book, but sometimes we have to close our books and open our hearts to new, creative experience.

Our Friday night services have been very poorly attended in recent years, except when we have a special event or meal. This along with the stressful logistics of post-flood wandering from place to place provoked me to try something else. I called it “contemplative Friday night” and truthfully did not have a fully evolved plan, just a sense of wanting to sing and sit together with whoever was there. We had a great showing, which was good information in itself, and I think everyone really appreciated what we shared. We drummed and sang beautiful melodies in memory of one of my beloved teachers of Jewish meditation, Rabbi Dovid Zeller. We reflected and meditated and chanted together just a few words from the liturgy. Personally, I felt refreshed and renewed and ready for the sublime peace of Shabbat. We were blessed to have some special guests there, like the Jewish musical talent from LA, Mikey Pauker and some of his musicians, as well as my good friend Lev who co-led parts of the service with me. It was joyful and vibrant and I’m ready to try to recreate the experience on a monthly basis.

It’s hard to define what the special magic of that evening was, but it was there and I feel that there is a thirst for this kind of spiritual expression. The very beautifully remodeled basement of my house is the perfect venue and I am already anticipating the next one. We have First Friday, Fourth Friday, and now we have “Basement Friday!” Are you ready?

The oldest functioning synagogue in the world is the famous Alt-Neu shul in Prague, the so-called Old New Synagogue. As we move back to Bonai Shalom, there is a sense that this is our ‘Old New Shul,’ an old building that looks very fresh and new. It is my hope that our community can model Alt-Neu not just in the walls and fixtures of the building, but by embracing the great depth of the old traditions and practices with the creativity and vision to explore the new, as we strive to keep our Jewish lives breathing and relevant in our changing world. It’s good to be home and now that we are, what is the home that we want to share?

Community Table

Can you spare an hour and a half once a month to help feed hungry and often homeless people a hearty meal?

Bonai Shalom is responsible for supplying volunteers for Community Table the second Monday of every month. Please join us on July 14 and August 11 at the First United Methodist Church, 14th and Spruce Streets, in Boulder (one block east of the Hotel Boulderado, one-half block north of the Boulder Theater).

Dinner is served 5-6 pm and we have two informal shifts, 3:45-5:30 pm and 5:30-7 pm. You may come anytime during those hours, and stay for as long as you like. Whatever time you can share is appreciated!

Volunteers Needed

The Hesed Initiative at Bonai Shalom is in need of volunteers. Hesed is a volunteer and community run program that offers support to community members following birth/adoptions, surgery/illness, death, and other life-impacting events. If you are interested in learning more about how you can volunteer, please contact Hesed@bonaishalom.org.

It would not be possible to be writing this as we are returning to our building on Cherryvale without a huge kol hakavod to the volunteers of our Architecture Committee. This committee is singularly responsible for our return to Cherryvale. Under the leadership of Ron Squarer, the team members – Bruce Wildman, Nissan Cohen, Gary Jacobs, Michael Margolis, Arti Goldstein, Itzik Ziv, and Cairole Woodward – have spent innumerable hours working with architects, contractors, remediation firms. We all owe thanks to this group!

I also want to thank the amazing staff at Bonai Shalom. Kit Colorado and Karen Raizen were the glue that held our operations together over the past year and a half. Supplementing our office with Meg Letts and Dove Weissman has resulted in better communications and programming, for example our new website and the Beatles-themed Purim celebration. The members of the office staff have formed a high-functioning team that supports Rabbi Marc, the Board and the community as a whole.

Finally, I want to thank Rabbi Marc for being an inspiring teacher, leader, and role model for our community. I learned so much about the work our Rabbi does and cannot convey the quantity or quality of what he does beyond weekly and holiday services, which is when many of us are most likely to see him. He is constantly at work behind the scenes developing programs, discussing priorities in ritual, reaching out to the wider community and bringing back the best they have to offer. Thank you, Rabbi Marc for making my presidency a pleasure.

As I close, I have to note that there are too many other groups and people to thank individually (Sisterhood, Social Action, our school teachers, our financial supporters...). Really, I need to and want to thank all of our members. You create a wonderful community and your love of Bonai Shalom has made my term as President a gift.

Shalom,

Steven, Hill, President, 303-588-5645

By Hannah Kapnik Ashar

In the summer of 2010, I was at a seminar called “Jewish Thought and Enduring Human Questions.” My sister, Alyssa, who works in radio and has long had a push-pull relationship with Judaism, loving philosophy and resenting practice, called. She said, “I have an idea. I want to start a Jewish RadioLab. A podcast (a radio show that you can download or listen to online) that takes brilliant Jewish ideas and makes them accessible. Do you have any ideas of big Jewish topics or questions?” She didn’t know I was swimming in those very things at the time, or that her vision would grow to be our shared project for the next few years.

We began developing Come & Listen, a Jewish podcast that curates great ideas from fascinating thinkers at the junction of Jewish thought and modern values. We have released six episodes: ‘Love & Death’, ‘Language & Law’, ‘Sound’, ‘Gender & Sexuality’, a short episode ‘On Love’, and, most recently, ‘Don’t Eat That!’. This latest episode is a conversation with Professor David Kraemer on the evolution of kashrut, and how evolving kashrut reflects evolving boundaries between Jews and their neighbors. In each episode, Alyssa and I bring our unique relationships with Judaism to the conversations, sharing a bit of ourselves and exploring ideas through both her more cynical eye and my more enchanted eye. One of our goals is to make Torah accessible, particularly Torah that reflects a theology that is resonant for liberal listeners.

Working on the podcast has been illuminating. I’ve learned about the technology we use. About the evolution of Torah and how there is no one authentic Judaism. I’ve encountered and interviewed brilliant Jewish thinkers. Perhaps most of all, I have learned a great deal about sharing Jewish language, Jewish life, and creative vision with my sister! We are currently creating Come & Listener Guides, sets of questions to accompany clips from the podcast for rich conversation in intimate gatherings (4-8 people). I would love to hear your thoughts on the podcast, and to talk with you about using these bookgroup-style guides with a group of friends or in our Bonai community. You can find the podcast on iTunes and on our website, www.comeandlisten.com.

The prescribed time for lighting candles is exactly 18 minutes before Shabbat actually comes in, to ensure that we do not light candles after Shabbat, as the Torah forbids the lighting of fire on Shabbat. Once we have light candles, we have brought in Shabbat, and anything that our personal practice forbids on Shabbat starts then. Regardless of your level of observance, it is an important, holy and wonderful Mitzvah to gather as a family each week and light candles to shift the energy of the week into the transformative energy of Shabbat. A truly healing weekly ritual!

At the end of Shabbat, it is traditional to perform the short Havdalah ceremony to distinguish the holiness of Shabbat from the everydayness of the week in a beautiful ritual with wine, spices and a multi-wicked candle. The symbolism of this service is to capture the essence of the light and sweetness of Shabbat and bring it into our week to sustain us in our work and busy lives. Need a tutorial? Inclusion Committee
We Need Your Ideas and Input
At Bonai Shalom, we’re trying hard to reach out to people who might need some accommodation to be able to fully participate in our congregation. Do you have any special needs? Do you know someone else with special needs? Would you or someone you know like to attend our programs or services, but need some help in doing so – a ride, help with a wheelchair, large print books or help with hearing? Contact us with concerns, questions, or information. You are invited to attend one meeting of our newly formed committee. Please contact the office for details.

 Earn Money for Bonai when you food shop!
Stop by the office to purchase cards!

King Soopers and Safeway gift cards are RECHARGEABLE (up to $500 at a time) at the check-out lane or service counter using your own credit card! You get the points every time you recharge (reload) the card, and Bonai Shalom, the JCC, and the Boulder chapter of Hadassah share the 5-percent profits equally.

Your first King Soopers or Safeway scrip card must be purchased from either Bonai Shalom or Karen Diamond. The number on this card is tied to the shared account — everyone profits! The cards are available in $10 denominations. The rechargeable gift card may be used at King Soopers gas stations and Safeway gas stations. The King Soopers rechargeable gift card may also be used at Kroger and Ralph stores, and a host of other nationwide stores listed on the card.

Whole Foods gift cards are now available in $100 denominations. These cards are not rechargeable. When the amount on the card is “used up,” the card is thrown away. Whole Foods offers a 3-percent rebate to our scrip program. For more information or to purchase a Whole Foods gift card, contact Karen Diamond at 303-939-8656.

Also, $100 or $200 Sprouts gift cards are available from Karen Diamond. These cards are not rechargeable, but Sprouts offers a 5-percent profit. Once the amount on the card is spent, a new one must be purchased from Karen — please contact her with questions and for orders.
Right after Shavuot, Meghan Letts (Sr. Staff Leader for the B’nai Mitzvah Camping Trip in August and handles communication and administrative duties in the Bonai office) and I attended the Teva Seminar on Jewish Outdoor, Food & Environmental Education (JOFEE) at the Isabella Freedman Center in Falls Village, CT. We hiked, attended text study classes, sessions on spiritual practice and ritual, learned about their farm and garden, studied environmental activism, learned new culinary arts, and learned about the upcoming Shmita year (starts at Rosh Hashana). We learned how to make dyes and inks from plants, how to make homemade butter and cheese, and how to make recycled paper among other things. We had the chance to talk with leaders in the JOFEE field and network with our colleagues. It was an amazing, enriching, rewarding experience.

We have been hearing over the past few months from Rabbi Marc, as well as other sources, about the recently-published JOFEE report and how its findings support the high value of outdoor, food, and environmental education in building and strengthening Jewish identity. Our main Jewish holidays and laws were developed around these important elements in ancient Israel, and they are just as relevant to our lives today.

Meghan brought back new ideas to incorporate into the annual camping trip that the incoming B’nai Mitzvah students will be taking with Rabbi Marc at the end of the summer in August. And I have brought back many new ideas for our students in the Religious School as well as fun activities for our youth groups to do together. We are excited to put them all in place!

New Religious School Schedule and Registration

After surveying the Religious School families followed by discussion at an open meeting, the decision to move all Sunday classes to meet on Saturday during Shabbat services was made. Therefore, starting this fall, our Religious School classes will be meeting with the following schedule:

- Grades K-7 will meet on Saturday mornings from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm
- Grades 2-7 will meet on Wednesdays from 4:15 to 6:15 pm

All classes on Shabbat will be taught using Shabbat-appropriate strategies, which includes literature, music, drama, games, and discussion finishing with an age-appropriate length and content service. Classes on Wednesdays will include art, writing, and experiential activities.

New Programming

Bonai Shalom will be starting a new (Moving Traditions) Rosh Chodesh – It’s a Girl Thing group for our 6th and 7th grade girls, with our new Youth Advisor, Aviva Bannerman, as the group leader. She will be leaving for training the end of July, there will be an informational meeting in August, and the first group meeting will be held in September. More details on the group and informational meeting will come after Aviva returns from the training. If you have any questions and are interested in having your daughter participate, please contact me at karen@bonaishalom.org.

Youth Groups and Informal Education

Our youth groups had a very successful start last year, and we are planning a program that will hopefully continue to build participation.

Last year there were three groups, but as we go into the new school year, we will change that into two groups. These groups will be as follows:

- Bonim – Grades 2-4
- Kadima – Grades 5-7

Our new Youth Advisor will be Aviva Bannerman. She comes to us from the East Coast and has begun a three-year graduate program at Naropa. With a Jewish day school education through 12th grade and some camp and youth group experience, she is looking forward to getting to know our students. You may have heard her chant Torah and Haftarah at recent Shabbat services. In addition, she will be one of the staff members on the B’nai Mitzvah class camping trip. Welcome Aviva!

Communication

I send out emails each Friday during the school year and every other week in the summer to help families stay informed about the Religious School, youth group, youth Shabbat, and other informal education activities. If you did not receive these emails the past year, but want to make sure that you receive them starting this summer, please send me (karen@bonaishalom.org) your email and I will add you to the list. If you register your child for Religious School, you are automatically on the list.

Social Action / Tikkun Olam

Mission Statement
The Social Action Committee identifies, supports, and publicizes projects and activities that will allow congregants to participate in Tikkun Olam with a sense of connection to Jewish tradition and teachings. These projects will focus on safeguarding against threats to life, the earth, freedom, human rights, human dignity, peace, and justice.

Successful Food Drive for Boulder County AIDS Project
We are pleased to report that, with the invaluable help of the B’nei Mitzvah class, CBS contributed 80 pounds of food and other items to this year’s food drive for the Boulder County AIDS Project (BCAP). The class created a beautiful poster that was used to advertise the food drive and keep track of its progress. Charna Rosenholtz, their teacher, commented about the students’ participation, “The B’nei Mitzvah class greatly benefited from learning about BCAP. Their willingness and enthusiasm in sharing the information they garnered to encourage Bonai congregants to donate food can be seen in the beautiful poster they created. While we did not meet this year’s goal, the fact that so much was gathered at a time when Bonai itself had been displaced is a testimony to the giving nature of our community.”

BOHO Update
In the fall, we will again be collecting gently used adult coats, hats, socks, mittens and gloves, and books for Boulder Outreach for Homeless Overflow winter shelter season. We also plan to continue our collaboration with the JCC to collect blankets and quilts for the Boulder Shelter for the Homeless. In addition, we plan to increase our efforts to provide dinner and breakfast items for Congregation Har HaShem’s homeless guests during the winter. Watch for announcements about opportunities to participate.

Update on Our Sudanese Friends
In 2005, Bonai Shalom started working with Har HaShem, Nevei Kodesh and the Quakers on the Sudanese Refugee Project. Our volunteers worked on all aspects of resettling young women who had escaped a civil war in South Sudan. We worked closely with Sister Luise, a German nun, and are still in contact with them. We have a scholarship fund and have helped with educational and job-related expenses over the years. Here’s what they are doing now:

Pauline, who was a commencement speaker at Boulder High a few years ago, is studying to be a computer technician at Front Range Community College. She has an adorable two-year-old, Benjamin. Pauline also works as a cashier at the college’s bookstore. She became a citizen on September 11, 2013.

Christine lives with her beautiful daughters, Claire, who is in kindergarten, and newborn Aaliyah. Christine works as a CNA at Manor Care and has plans to pursue a degree in Public Health at CU. Peter works at Covidien.

Stella works the graveyard shift as a CNA at an elder care facility in Longmont. She is living with the family of one of our volunteers and is also helping with some childcare duties. She attended Front Range and CU.

There are many Bonai Shalom members who were very involved with these young women. Chat with us over kiddish. We’d love to share stories.

Voliyah Membership Program at CBS

Bonai offers two exciting programs that allow members to support CBS by giving above and beyond their standard membership. One way is through our Aliyah plus giving program, in which members give financially above their standard dues amount. Second is our Voliyah (Volunteer Aliyah) program, in which members give extra volunteer hours to Bonai Shalom. Visit www.bonaishalom.org and click on the “Volunteer” link for details.

Connect to Bonai!

Bonai Shalom is now connected to social media. Please “like” our new page on Facebook, and “follow” our Twitter feed and Pinterest site. Simply put “Congregation Bonai Shalom” in the search boxes and you will find us. We will be using these sites to get the word out about all of Bonai’s programs!

A Place at Your Table?

In the Jewish tradition, hospitality (hachnassat orachim) is not just a nice thing to do, but is one of the highest mitzvot! At Bonai Shalom, we try to be as welcoming and open as we can, yet, there is still more that we can do. If you know in advance that you will have places at your table for a Shabbat or Festival meal, please let us know at the office, so that we can match you up with honored guests! Also, if you are looking for some home hospitality, please let us know too, and we will do what we can.
