DID YOU KNOW?

Bonai Shalom partners with MazelTogether and PJ Library to create and promote programs with other Jewish organizations in Boulder.

MazelTogether is a resource that helps connect families to Jewish life in the Boulder and Denver area and offers discounts for various programs. Visit their website for easy access to information about local events.

PJ Library is an organization that sends free Jewish children's books and music to families all over the country for children 0 - 8 years old. The organization also works locally to offer activities for families with young children. Sign-up forms can be found in our children's library in the lower level. Visit their website to learn more about this great opportunity!
